LVFH Signs Exclusive Title Sponsorship with the Heartland Poker Tour and advises it will hold analyst /shareholder conference call to discuss its 2005 third quarter financial results

Vancouver, British Columbia, October 25, 2005 – Las Vegas From Home.com Entertainment Inc. (the “Company”) or (“LVFH”). The Company is pleased to announce that it has entered into an Exclusive Title Sponsorship with the Heartland Poker Tour (“HPT”) for 52 weeks. The HPT is a weekly televised poker tour series that takes place at several Casino venues in the Midwest United States and is currently being broadcasted primarily throughout the region. To learn more about the HPT and some of the participating Casinos and TV stations broadcasting the show, please visit www.heartlandpokertour.com.

Similar to other televised poker tour shows where the final table of each event will be televised, players will have the opportunity to either "buy in" or qualify for entry through the Company's www.actionpoker.com website or any of the Company's other licensee's websites within the overall Action Poker Network. Furthermore, in addition to having Product Exclusivity, multiple "ActionPoker" commercials and billboard title sponsorships airing in each episode, there will be many other promotional features where the ActionPoker brand will be integrated within the actual show.

President & CEO Jake Kalpakian states, "We are thrilled at being the Exclusive Title Sponsor for the HPT. It's another strategic component in our overall plan to market our ActionPoker brand and become more visible in the United States. Because of the special localized nature of this tournament series, it allows us to target market and brand ourselves in a particular geographic region, the US Midwest, and then continue in building a national marketing campaign. This compliments our strategy in Southern California where we again focus on a target market and then expand with a national marketing campaign after building a core constituency of players."

Mr. Kalpakian continues, "Another intangible benefit that should not be overlooked will be the constant branding and visibility the Company's ActionPoker website will have with tournament players at the local Casinos through direct grassroots marketing by the producers and commentators of the actual T.V. show. We believe "good old fashioned meet and greet handshake marketing" with the players at the Casinos by the principals of HPT will go a long way in building goodwill and stimulate even greater interest and trust in the ActionPoker brand."

Mr. Kalpakian further adds, "The HPT is just of one of many marketing concepts we will be deploying in the future to continue fueling our steady growth. Although the summer in general is usually considered a slower time in the Internet Gaming Industry, we experienced healthy growth in our Real Money business and look to continue building upon our positive momentum with several eye-catching marketing initiatives in the near future."

In addition, Jake Kalpakian, President and CEO of LVFH, cordially invites you to participate in the Company's analyst/shareholder conference call to be held on Thursday, November 17, 2005 at 5:00 pm (Toronto time). Management will review the financial results for the 2005 third quarter and discuss recent developments, to be followed by a question and answer period. The Company is
