NEWS RELEASE

LVFH to launch horse racing contest site at DerbyTournaments.com

VANCOUVER, BRITISH COLUMBIA. June 8, 2015 - Las Vegas From Home.com Entertainment Inc. (the “Company” or “LVFH”) (TSX-V: LVH) (US OTC Pink Sheets: LVFHF) (Berlin: LVH) (Frankfurt: LVH).

LVFH is pleased to announce the launch of DerbyTournaments (www.DerbyTournaments.com), a brand new fantasy horse racing site. DerbyTournaments allows players to enter a horse racing contest by picking the horses they think will “win” or “place” from real-life professional racetracks. Winners get paid instantly when their selections score higher than other players in the contest.

From expert horse racing enthusiasts to casual fans, players will experience the thrill and excitement of the racetracks in the palm of their hands. DerbyTournaments brings popular racetracks from USA, Canada and Puerto Rico, right to the player’s fingertips with a wide selection of daily games and contests. Players can play on their desktop browser, mobile browser, Android app, and iOS app (coming soon). Attractive promotions are available such as freerolls, guaranteed prize pool contests, initial deposit bonuses, referral programs and loyalty points. DerbyTournaments offers a wide variety of secure and convenient payment methods including credit card and Paypal.

“We are excited to launch DerbyTournaments to the public on Monday, June 8 following the final leg of the triple crown of horse racing at Belmont Park in New York so that players can register and play for fun,” stated Jake H. Kalpakian, President of LVFH. “We expect to allow real money games and contests very soon.”

LVFH intends to expand DerbyTournaments globally by offering players the ability to choose and play from different racetracks throughout Europe, South America, Australia and Asia. In addition, players will soon be able to see a live video feed of each race while they chat with other players.
